

Enjoy exquisite panoramas and cultural treasures in the Sabine Hills outside Rome

Tour stops can be tailored to clients' preferences, such as Farfa Abbey, Italy's oldest and most famous abbey; Saint Francis's Greccio sanctuary where nativity scenes originated; the Museo dell'Olio, which pays homage to the olive tree and its many uses to man through the centuries, and other remarkable ancient sites and hermitages.

Also available upon request are walks on scenic country trails or two-hour morning cooking classes at the Tevere-Farfa Inn, followed by a full-course lunch.

Experience the rolling olive hills, medieval hilltowns, and unique art of this romantic, historic landscape

TOUR FEE

€125 per person includes guided tours, museum fees, and a full-course meal.

Optional cooking class €20 per person for the lesson, which focuses on special dishes such as carciofi alla romana or risotto con radicchio.

Clients may propose a recipe of their choice.

Tours are for 2–4 persons

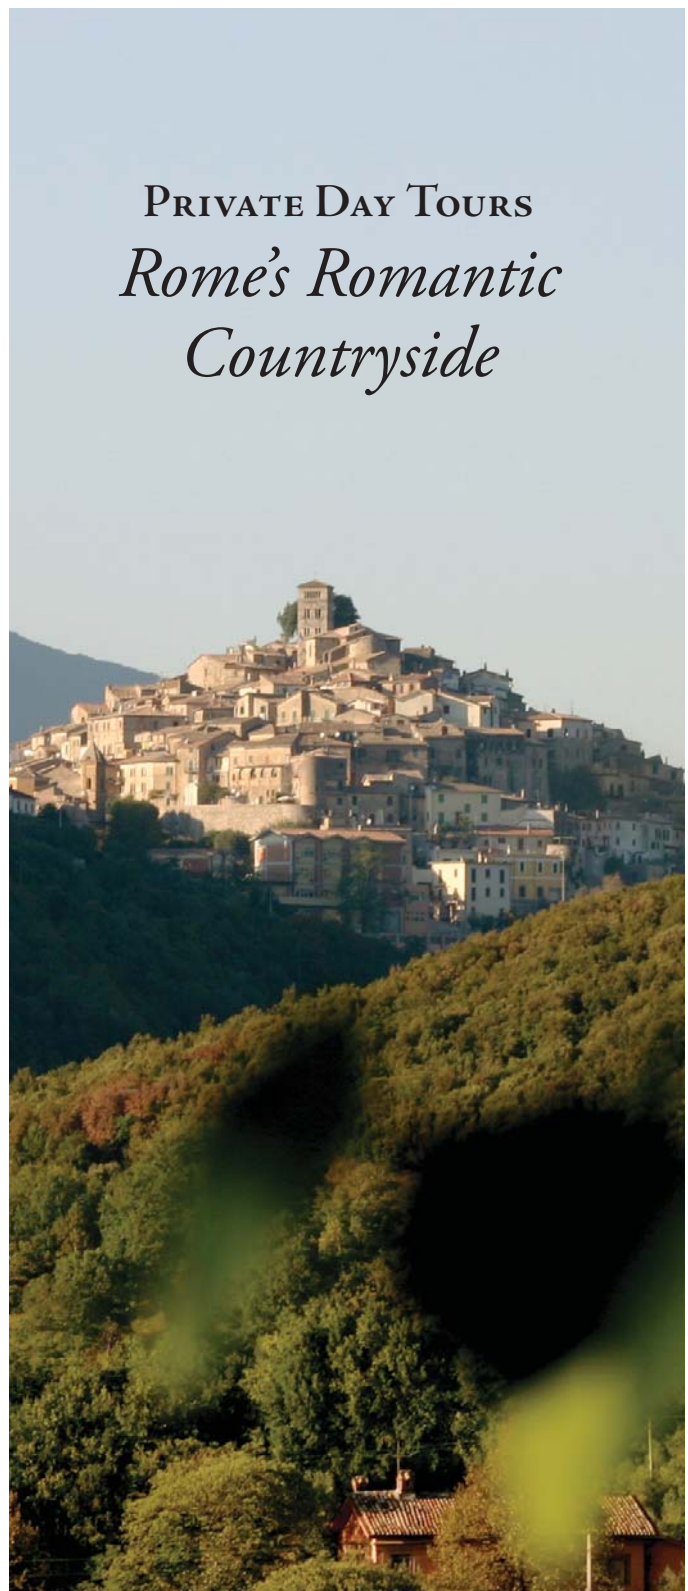

HIGHLIGHTS

- ✦ drives through breathtaking scenery
- ✦ privately guided cultural tours
- ✦ traditional cooking classes with local chef
- ✦ scenic walks
- ✦ country dining al fresco

Call or email for more information:
mobile 389.056.2741 + office 0765.63399
info@mangiarebenesabina.com
www.mangiarebenesabina.com

Photographs (details) by Alfio Fisticaro
© 2008, all rights reserved

PRIVATE DAY TOURS

Rome's Romantic Countryside